

11-29-1912

Letter from Sarah Sage, Albany, New York, to Anne Whitney, Boston, Massachusetts, 1912 November 29

Sarah Sage

Wellesley College Archives

Follow this and additional works at: https://repository.wellesley.edu/whitney_correspondence

Recommended Citation

Sage, Sarah and Wellesley College Archives, "Letter from Sarah Sage, Albany, New York, to Anne Whitney, Boston, Massachusetts, 1912 November 29" (1912). Papers of Anne Whitney (MSS.4): Correspondence. 1114.
https://repository.wellesley.edu/whitney_correspondence/1114

This Correspondence is brought to you for free and open access by the Papers of Anne Whitney (MSS.4) at Wellesley College Digital Scholarship and Archive. It has been accepted for inclusion in Papers of Anne Whitney (MSS.4): Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Wellesley College Digital Scholarship and Archive. For more information, please contact ir@wellesley.edu.

Miss Anna Whitney
The Charlesgate,
Beacon St
Boston
Mass.

MENAND'S

ALBANY, N.Y.

My dear Miss Whitney

I often think of you - and I have the proof, that you think of me, in this little book of poems, received yesterday. I am glad to have some one select poems for me, for I look in vain for something that means poetry to me, in the many verses printed in magazines.

Your card does not tell me whether you are well, but I hope you are, and that you have the comfort of the companionship of those you love, for that is what I find I need most. Yesterday being Thanks giving - I had 16 of my family with me for dinner. Jimmy Cooper my oldest grand child, graduates this year - from Yale. Anne
The next is at Fanny's town at school, and there is every age among my children, down to Betty's baby - 8 months old

I find that cold weather horses me, for Albany is a MENAND'S
ALBANY, N.Y.
very cold place, so on the 30th of January I go abroad again, only as far as Cannes, to sit out doors in the sun & climate.

for a few of the weeks that will be so cold here, my devoted niece Louise Manning will go with me, & she is the best of cheerful company.

I have been very well this summer, having most of my big family around me, in my camp in the Adirondacks.

Now I am enjoying the fall at Kissels: where running a farm & enjoying my greenhouse, & seeing my friends & best of all my children. Keeps me busy with much love, & many thanks for the little book.

Love yours affecy

Laura M. Sage

Nov 29th '12